Version	2.3	Document Name	POL-FIN-021 Expense & Travel Policy
Effective Date	2026-05-01	Review Date	2027-05-01

1. Purpose

This policy defines the rules for incurring, approving, and reimbursing business travel and expenses. It ensures spending is reasonable, necessary, properly documented, and compliant with tax requirements.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all employees and contractors who incur business expenses or travel on company business, and to anyone who approves such expenses.

3. Policy Statements

- All expenses must have a valid business purpose and an itemized receipt for any amount of USD 25 or more.
- Air travel should be booked at least 14 days in advance in economy class for flights under 6 hours.
- Hotel stays must not exceed the per-diem cap for the destination city as published in Appendix B.
- Meals are reimbursed up to the daily per-diem; alcohol is not reimbursable.
- Expense reports must be submitted within 30 days of the expense being incurred.
- Personal travel combined with business travel must be clearly separated and is not reimbursable.

4. Responsibilities

Corporate Finance owns this policy and the expense system. Managers review and approve reports for their teams and are accountable for budget adherence. Employees must submit accurate, timely, and complete expense claims.

5. Enforcement

Late or non-compliant claims may be rejected or delayed. Falsifying an expense claim is considered fraud and will result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Approvers who knowingly approve improper claims are equally accountable.
